Tidbit's is a small but growing (fictitious) local chocolatier. Founded originally in 2015 by Xio Colel, as a sole proprietor out of her kitchen, she has now grown into a small shop of 7 employees in Queen Anne. Xio Colel and Tidbits's dedication to fine, hand-crafted chocolates shows through their commitment to high-quality local ingredients made in small batches by skilled chocolatiers. Tidbits is dedicated to Xio Colel's family recipes and crafting techniques. All of their toffees, brittles, caramels, and fudges are hand stirred in copper kettles to insure that the taste and texture meet her standards and that the batches are small and fresh.

Whenever possible, Tidbits uses local ingredients from small businesses that are as committed to quality. You can taste it in the buttery caramels, smooth dark chocolates, or the spice of chile or cinnamon that lingers on your tongue.
